CURED BY CUTICURA IN A MONTH

"I am seventy-seven years old, and some years ago I was taken with eczema from head to foot. I was sick for six months and what I suffered tongue could not tell. I could not sleep day or night because of that dreadful itching; when I did sleep it was from sheer exhaustion. I was one mass of irritation; it was even in my scalp. The doctor's medicine seemed to make me worse and I was almost out of my mind. I got a set of the Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent. I used them persistently for twenty-four hours. That night I slept like an infant, the first solid night's sleep I had had for six months. In a month I was cured. W. Harrison Smith, Mt. Kisco, N. Y., Feb. 3, 1938."

Koh-I-Noor Lead Pencils Are the Standard Brand.

Cranston & Co., the Main Street stationery store, are now making a window display of the famous "Koh-I-Noor" lead pencils, which are considered the standard of the world. Made in Austria, used everywhere, and sold everywhere at a uniform price of 10 cents per dozen. Made in 17 different degrees to suit all requirements. The "Koh-I-Noor" pencils also make the well known "Mephisto" copying pencil, which is the best "Five Cent Copier" on the market, and is used by trolley car conductors all over the world.

In the center of Cranston's window is a large handsome globe representing the earth, and the "Koh-I-Noor" lead pencil is the best on the earth. On top of the globe at the north pole stands a polar bear, holding in one paw the American flag, in the other a card which reads "The Old Pole is Ours." A complete stock of the pencils is tastefully arranged, and there are brilliant signs, posters, show cards, etc., also a unique hanger which can be seen in the window and in every trolley car running in Norwich. The display attracts much attention.

BROADWAY THEATER.

"St. Elmo."

"St. Elmo," for decades a novel that has helped the hearts of romantic idealists, has brought the touch of remorse to the sated roue and has taught even the preacher his lesson of forgiveness, has been done into a play by Willard Holcomb, and will be presented on Saturday, Oct. 16, matinee and night at the Broadway theater, for the first time in this city. Whatever may be said of the play taken from Augusta Evans Wilson's vibrant novel, it will be admitted that it is built of excellent material. Full of the innately dramatic in plot and in atmosphere, the book has for all these years been the reservoir of inspiration for a strong play. The story as read by those in the time when the code duello was considered a necessary part of every gentleman's education, was a strong satire against the futile slaughter which that practice effected.
Like duelling, that part of the story has become obsolete. But that is not wonder the duelling scene in the first act from being a strong weapon in the hands of the players with which to win the favor of the audience.

BREED THEATER.

The Freebooters, Thrilling Express Robbery Picture.

A large assemblage was present at the Breed theater last evening and enjoyed the splendid bill of features provided for Friday and Saturday. These desire something of a sensation, and are treated to the thrilling story of the robbery of the Wells-Fargo Express Co., produced under the title of "The Freebooters." Mr. Rouss makes a big hit with his vocal barn dance, the truly rustic air compelling a genuine encore.

THE AUDITORIUM.

The management of the Auditorium have been fortunate in securing a picture of Friday and Saturday, and that should prove of great interest to residents of Norwich. The film is entitled "Leather Stocking," and has been dramatized from the famous novel of James Fenimore Cooper. The story itself deals with several incidents in the life and career of Uncas, the Last of the Mo-hicans, showing some thrilling scenes, the rescue of the party of whites, and the fight in the stockade being especially good. Other pictures that will please are "Construction of Balloons," A Fresh Kid, Oh! What a Beard, and others.

LIQUOR SALES TO MINORS.

Rev. Dr. Walter J. Shanley of Danbury Declares War on the Illegal Practice—Will Employ Detectives.

The following appeared in the Danbury Post of Friday: "The proprietors of liquor saloons in this city (Danbury) each received by mail today a copy of a letter signed by the Rev.
Walter J. Shanley, D.D., rector of St.
Peter's church, in which the clergyman declares his intention to secure the services of detectives to secure evidence against saloons which sell liquor to minors of his parish, in violation of the law.
The following is a copy of the letter:
Dear Sir: As saloonkeepers of Danbury are selling intoxicating liquor in open and flagrant violation of the law, to minors of the parish of which I am pastor, I wish to notify you, that as the police of Danbury are inefficient in this matter, I will secure the services of a detective agency to obtain evidence against the lawbreakers, and will do all in my power to have their licenses revoked. Yours truly, WALTER J. SHANLEY.
Danbury, Oct. 8, 1938.

ODD FELLOWS RETURN.

Sovereign Grand Lodge Session at Seattle Profitable—G. U. Kierstead of Hartford Honored.

The Connecticut delegation that attended the annual meeting of the sovereign grand lodge of Odd Fellows at Seattle last month has returned.
Two important appointments were secured for Connecticut Odd Fellows.
Representative Grant U. Kierstead of Hartford, who represented the grand lodge of the state, was named as a member of the special committee on Rebekah floor work.
The other appointment goes to Past Grand Representative and Past Grand Master Philip Pond of New Haven, who will be named assistant guardian to attend the next annual session of the sovereign grand lodge, which will be in Atlanta, Ga.
It is many years since Connecticut has had a representative in the sovereign grand lodge.

BOY'S RUSSIAN SUIT.

Paris Pattern No. 3080 — All Seams Allowed.

An entirely new design in a Russian suit for the wee man is here shown in navy blue serge. The attractive little blouse is going to the shoulders front and back, the side portions being joined underneath to the center portions to simulate a broad buckle. The knickers are shaped by regulation seams, and handy pockets are found at the sides and back. Serge, broadcloth, cheviot, duck, linen, etc., are adaptable materials.
The pattern is in four sizes—2 to 5 years. For a boy of 3 years the suit requires 3 1/2 yards of material 24 inches wide, 3 1/2 yards 27 inches wide, 2 1/2 ing material for the collar.

A NURSES' HOME.

Contract Executed for a Substantial Building in Middletown at Insane Hospital.

A new nurses' home for the Connecticut hospital for the insane at Middletown will be built. The home will be a three-story brick building 75 feet long with Portland stone trimmings, concrete foundations, slate roof and metal cornice. It will have in the west wing rooms for women attendants and the east wing the same number of rooms for men. The center will have three rooms for use of the married couples employed at the institution. Each section will be entirely separate.

Each room will have ample light and be heated by steam and ventilated through special ventilating flue. There will be a large wardrobe built into each room. Theatricals will be included in a large parlor fitted with brick fireplace and convenient bookcases.
The woodwork will be oak filled and varnished. There will be ample toilet rooms on each floor in each section with tiled floors, enameled finished walls and best quality open plumbing.
Each section of building has ornate mental iron and steel stairways running from the basement to the top and enclosed in solid brick walls and reached through fireproof doors.

Sessions—Goodenough.

Invitations have been issued by the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Goodenough of Bristol for the wedding of their daughter, Miss Marjorie Alice Goodenough, and William Kenneth Sessions, youngest son of the Hon. and Mrs. William E. Sessions of Bellevue avenue. The ceremony is to take place in the Prospect Methodist Episcopal church, October 27. This will be the largest and most elaborate wedding Bristol has ever had.

Police Dogs.

The police dogs of Europe figure so frequently in continental newspapers that the least credulous reader must believe the tales of their audacity and bravery. That impression deepens when one learns that about a hundred such dogs are now "on duty" in the suburbs of Paris, at no expense to the public, the officers whom they accompany valuing the service, so highly that they willingly bear the cost of training and maintenance. It was Babou, a police dog, which recently caught "Bamboula, the Terror," chief of a dangerous gang of Apaches. By way of reward, Babou was permitted to help escort him to the station. That proceeding was as well as a generous deed; for the Terror tripped one of the officers and would have made good his escape, had not Babou promptly jumped on his back, pinned him to the ground, and fixed him by the ear. With gentry like the Terror, French justice works with dramatic swiftness. He will be safely dead ages before Babou has lost any of his agility or his teeth. It seems that the least admirable municipality should do for the dog that suppressed the nuisance is to put him on the official payroll—Boston Transcript.

Farmers as Railroad Owners.

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson has suggested that with the great increasing prosperity of the farmers of the American, the man behind the plough would invest wholesale in railroad securities, in small lots, of course, provided the government supplied a more rigid and unswerving supervision of these great properties.
The idea is commendable from many standpoints, and from none more strikingly than in the additional protection the practice would afford both to railroad and to farmer.
For one thing, if the farmer so of the country were larger holders of railroad securities, they would speedily become more patient and intelligent students of great public questions. With this change would come an amelioration, if not an entire disappearance, of the so-called "baiting" of the railroads, for it is upon ignorance and prejudice, alone that the demagogue feeds.
Contrariwise, the railroads would themselves be of necessity coerced into a continuous rectitude. Engaged largely in hauling the freight of the forces supporting them, they would be faced with a check upon over-capitalization and unfair discriminations such as is afforded by no other present device.—Atlanta Constitution.
